

Business Development & Marketing Internship/ Placement in Central London
Urban Food Fest
2 to 12 months (dates and availability vary)
www.urbanfoodfest.com

Urban Food Fest is a street food market and events company based in central London.

Instagram: @urbanfoodfest

Founded in 2013 the company create bespoke street food markets and events for brands including as Coca-Cola, Nike, Apple, Warner Bros, Manchester United Sony, Adidas, Heineken and GAP.

We offer placements and internships for international students.

Your duties will include, and you will be trained on:

- Events management on and off-site
- Hospitality training and operations
- Client and customer service training and operations
- Graphic design (Photoshop, InDesign)
- Carrying out market research and analysis
- Customer relationship management
- Increasing brand awareness, marketing, PR and communications (Online & Offline)
- Social Media
- Supporting the development of our company
- Logistics and operations of street food markets and events
- Office support and administration
- New business, business development and CRM client relationship management

Your Qualifications:

- IT Skills: MS Office (Excel, Word)
- Attention to detail
- Analytical and problem-solving skills
- Willingness to learn and be part of a team
- Positive outlook and can do attitude
- Team player, but also able to work independently
- English speaking to a good level

If you are interested in applying to us, please send your CV to events@urbanfoodfest.com and our team will arrange a call with you. We look forward to hearing from you.